

In Fall 2017, the Christian Education Journal will be publishing a Special Focus section on:

EQUIPPING CHURCH MEMBERS FOR MINISTRY

Special Focus Guest Editor:

Dr. Norma Hedin, Dallas Baptist University

The emphasis of this “Special Focus” section of the journal will be on a variety of issues related to the mobilizing of church members in ministry, and the role of Christian education in the church to build up, equip, and send out people equipped to serve God through the ministry gifts and opportunities God provides them. The ministry is for all of God’s people, and one of the important goals of Christian education is to equip and release church members to be channels of God’s grace through the use of their gifts in serving others (1 Peter 4:10). Articles of contemporary research, theological study, and historical perspectives are welcome.

We recommend that those interested in contributing an article consult with the Special Focus Guest Editor, Dr. Norma Hedin beforehand: norma@dbu.edu

Any paper submissions should be e-mailed to the Special Focus Guest Editor. The deadline for paper submissions is March 1, 2017.

SUBSCRIBE NOW

to reserve your copy of the upcoming Special Focus

biola.edu/cej

The Christian Education Journal is published by Talbot School of Theology in cooperation with the Society of Professors in Christian Education